Where, after the commencement of this section, a person becomes a bankrupt by virtue of the presentation of a debtor's petition, the person shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to become a bankrupt at the first instant of the day on which the petition is accepted by the Official Receiver.

Division 4—Effect of bankruptcy on property and proceedings

58 Vesting of property upon bankruptcy—general rule

- (1) Subject to this Act, where a debtor becomes a bankrupt:
- (a) the property of the bankrupt, not being after-acquired property, vests forthwith in the Official Trustee or, if, at the time when the debtor becomes a bankrupt, a registered trustee becomes the trustee of the estate of the bankrupt by virtue of section 156A, in that registered trustee; and
 - (b) after-acquired property of the bankrupt vests, as soon as it is acquired by, or devolves on, the bankrupt, in the Official Trustee or, if a registered trustee is the trustee of the estate of the bankrupt, in that registered trustee.

Note 1: This subsection has a limited application if there are orders in force under the proceeds of crime law: see section 58A.

Note 2: Even if property has vested under this section, it may, under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002:

- (a) become subject to a restraining order; and
- (b) be taken into account in making a pecuniary penalty order; and
- (c) become subject to a charge to secure the payment of an amount under a pecuniary penalty order, if it is subject to a restraining order; and
- (d) be dealt with by the Official Trustee, if it is subject to a restraining order and a court has directed the Official Trustee to pay the Commonwealth an amount under a pecuniary penalty order out of property subject to the restraining order.

- (2) Where a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth requires the transmission of property to be registered and enables the trustee of the estate of a bankrupt to be registered as the owner of any such property that is part of the property of the bankrupt, that property, notwithstanding that it vests in equity in the trustee by virtue of this section, does not so vest at law until the requirements of that law have been complied with.
- (3) Except as provided by this Act, after a debtor has become a bankrupt, it is not competent for a creditor:
- (a) to enforce any remedy against the person or the property of the bankrupt in respect of a provable debt; or
 - (b) except with the leave of the Court and on such terms as the Court thinks fit, to commence any legal proceeding in respect of a provable debt or take any fresh step in such a proceeding.
- (4) After a debtor has become a bankrupt, distress for rent shall not be levied or proceeded with against the property of the bankrupt, whether or not the bankrupt is a tenant of the landlord by whom the distress is sought to be levied.
- (5) Nothing in this section affects the right of a secured creditor to realize or otherwise deal with his or her security.
- (5A) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prevent a creditor from enforcing any remedy against a bankrupt, or against any property of a bankrupt that is not vested in the trustee of the bankrupt, in respect of any liability of the bankrupt under:
- (a) a maintenance agreement; or
 - (b) a maintenance order;

whether entered into or made, as the case may be, before or after the commencement of this subsection.

- (6) In this section, after-acquired property, in relation to a bankrupt, means property that is acquired by, or devolves on, the bankrupt on or after the date of the bankruptcy, being property that is divisible amongst the creditors of the bankrupt.

58A Vesting of property upon bankruptcy—effect of orders in force under the proceeds of crime law

If a restraining order or forfeiture order is in force

- (1) If property of a bankrupt is covered by a restraining order, or a forfeiture order, made before the date of the bankruptcy, subsection 58(1) does not apply to property that is covered by the order while that property is so covered.

If a pecuniary penalty order is in force

- (2) If a pecuniary penalty order is made against a bankrupt before the date of the bankruptcy, subsection 58(1) does not apply to any of the property of the bankrupt while the order is in force.

Note: For proceeds of crime orders made on or after the date of the bankruptcy, and applications for proceeds of crime orders, see sections 114A to 114C.

Notifying the trustee of grounds for subsection 58(1) to apply to property

- (3) If circumstances arise as a result of which this section no longer prevents subsection 58(1) applying to property of the bankrupt, the Director of Public Prosecutions must, as soon as practicable, give the trustee written notice of the existence of the circumstances.

 - (a) if the trustee proposes to charge on a time-cost basis:
 - (i) if there is only one rate at which the remuneration is to be calculated—state that rate; or
 - (ii) otherwise—state the respective rates at which the remuneration of the trustee and the other persons who will be assisting, or will be likely to assist, the trustee in the performance of his or her duties are to be calculated; or
 - (b) if the trustee proposes to charge on the basis of a commission upon money received by the trustee—state the rate of that commission;and must also state the periods at which the trustee proposes to withdraw funds from the bankrupt's estate in respect of the trustee's remuneration.
- (5A) The statement under subsection (3) must also include:
 - (a) an estimate of the total amount of the trustee's remuneration; and
 - (b) an explanation of the likely impact of that remuneration on the dividends (if any) to creditors.
- (6) Any of the creditors and their representatives may ask the trustee questions about the proposed remuneration of the trustee and, if such a question is asked, the trustee must answer it.
- (7) Any of the creditors and their representatives may move an amendment to a motion proposed in accordance with subsection (4) so as to change in any way the basis on which the trustee is to charge or the periods at which the trustee may withdraw funds in respect of his or her remuneration or to refer the fixing of the trustee's remuneration to a committee of inspection.

- (8) If the meeting is not the first meeting of the bankrupt's creditors and the trustee is a registered trustee, the President must request the trustee to lay before the meeting a statement of the amount of remuneration drawn by the trustee from the funds of the bankrupt's estate before the meeting was held and the trustee must comply with the request.

64V Appointment of committee of inspection [see Table B]

The President must then tell the creditors and their representatives that, if they wish to appoint a committee of inspection, a motion for the appointment of such a committee may be proposed and must explain to them the effect of section 70.

64W Other business [see Table B]

If no motion is proposed for the appointment of a committee of inspection, or a motion for the appointment of such a committee has been passed or defeated, the President must then invite the creditors and their representatives to raise any other matters relevant to the bankruptcy.

64X Next meeting [see Table B]

- (1) The President must then invite the creditors and their representatives to propose a motion fixing a time, date and place for another meeting.
- (2) The passing of a resolution fixing a time, date and place for another meeting does not prevent the trustee from convening any other meeting before or after the date so fixed.

Subdivision E—Miscellaneous

64Y Adjournment of meeting [see Table B]

- (1) If, at any time during a meeting, the meeting is adjourned, or a resolution is passed for the adjournment of the meeting:
 - (a) the adjourned meeting is taken to be a continuation of the original meeting; and
 - (b) without limiting the application of paragraph (a):
 - (i) the persons who carried out the duties of President and minutes secretary at the original meeting are to continue to do so at the adjourned meeting; and
 - (ii) any matters required to be dealt with at the original meeting that were not so dealt with are to be dealt with at the adjourned meeting.
- (2) The trustee must give notice of the time, date and place of the adjourned meeting to each creditor in accordance with subsection 64A(2).

64Z Duties of minutes secretary [see Table B]

- (1) It is the duty of the minutes secretary of a meeting to take minutes in accordance with this section recording the business transacted at the meeting.
- (2) The minutes may, but need not, record full particulars of statements made, questions asked and answers given at the meeting but must contain sufficient particulars to show that the meeting dealt with all matters that are required by this Division to be dealt with.

- (3) Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the minutes must record:
 - (a) the name, and the address of a place of residence or business, of the minutes secretary or, if there were different minutes secretaries at different times during the meeting, of each minutes secretary; and
 - (b) the votes cast for each nominee at an election of a person to preside at the meeting (other than an election at which voting took place on the voices); and
 - (c) the name, and the address of a place of residence or business, of the President or, if there were different Presidents at different times during the meeting, of each President.
- (4) The minutes must record the precise words of each motion proposed at the meeting and of any amendment proposed to such a motion.
- (5) If a resolution or a special resolution is passed at the meeting:
 - (a) the minutes secretary must prepare a certificate recording the precise words of the resolution or special resolution; and
 - (b) the President and the minutes secretary must each sign the certificate; and
 - (c) the minutes secretary must give the certificate:
 - (i) to the trustee; or
 - (ii) in the case of a resolution passed under section 181 removing the trustee—to the trustee appointed in place of the trustee removed and to the Official Receiver; and
 - (d) the trustee to whom the certificate is given must keep it and allow the bankrupt, a creditor or an authorised employee to inspect it at any reasonable time.
- (6) If a motion is passed or defeated on the voices, the minutes must record that fact and, if a person who voted against a motion that was passed on the voices asks that the person's dissent be recorded in the minutes, that dissent must be so recorded.
- (7) The minutes must record the value of each creditor's debt and the total value of the debts of all the creditors.
- (8) If a poll is taken on a motion, the minutes must record:
 - (a) the number and names of the creditors (if any) who voted in favour of the motion and the total value of their debts; and
 - (b) the number and names of the creditors (if any) who voted against the motion and the total value of their debts; and
 - (c) the number and names of the creditors (if any) who abstained from voting on the motion and the total value of their debts.
- (9) A reference in this section to the value of a creditor's debt is, if the creditor is a secured creditor, a reference to the value of that debt after deducting the value of the security as estimated by the creditor in the statement given by the creditor to the trustee under section 64D.
- (10) The minutes must be dated, and be signed by the President and the minutes secretary, not later than 14 days after the date of the meeting.

64ZA Entitlement to vote [see Table B]

- (1) This section applies to voting:
 - (a) at an election under section 64P of a person to preside at a meeting; and
 - (b) on any motion proposed at a meeting or an amendment proposed to such a motion.

(2) In this section:

creditor means a creditor who, or whose proxy or attorney, participates in the meeting in person or by telephone.

(3) A person other than a creditor is not entitled to vote.

(4) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), each creditor is entitled to vote and has one vote.

(5) If a creditor is a secured creditor, the creditor is not entitled to vote unless the debt, or the total amount of the debts, owed to the creditor exceeds the amount estimated by the creditor in the statement given to the trustee under section 64D to be the value of the security.

(6) A creditor who has failed to give to the trustee a statement in accordance with section 64D is not entitled to vote.

(7) A creditor is not disqualified from voting merely because the creditor is the President or the minutes secretary.

(8) The trustee may determine any question that arises as to the entitlement of a person to vote.

(9) If the trustee needs a period in which to determine a question referred to in subsection (8), the meeting is to be adjourned to such time, date and place as the meeting resolves, being a date not later than 14 days after the date of the original meeting, for the purpose of enabling the trustee to determine the question.

64ZB Manner of voting [see Table B]

(1) A creditor who participates in a meeting in person or by telephone may cast the creditor's vote personally and not otherwise.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (5), the vote of a creditor who is not participating in a meeting in person or by telephone may be cast by a proxy duly appointed by the creditor, or by an attorney duly authorised by the creditor under a power of attorney, being a proxy or attorney participating in the meeting in person or by telephone, and the casting of a creditor's vote by such a proxy or attorney is taken to constitute the casting of a vote by the creditor.

(3) A person claiming to be the proxy of a creditor is not entitled to vote as proxy unless the instrument of appointment has been lodged with the President (or with the trustee, before the President was elected), either before or after the announcement is made under section 64M about the appointment of proxies and attorneys.

(3A) If an instrument of appointment of a proxy is lodged with the President in substitution for another instrument with an earlier date, then the later instrument commences to have effect (from the time it is lodged with the President) in substitution for the earlier instrument.

(4) A creditor's proxy or attorney is not disqualified from casting the creditor's vote merely because the proxy or attorney is the trustee, the President or the minutes secretary.

(5) If the trustee or an associate of the trustee is a creditor's proxy or attorney, the trustee or associate may not cast the creditor's vote on a motion relating to the trustee's remuneration unless the instrument appointing the proxy or the power of attorney, as the case may be, expressly authorises the trustee or associate to cast the creditor's vote on such a motion.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), a person is an associate of the trustee if the person is:

- (a) a partner of the trustee; or
 - (b) an employee of the trustee; or
 - (c) a solicitor for the trustee, for a partnership in which the trustee is a partner, or for a person or partnership that employs the trustee.
- (7) A motion proposed at a meeting is to be resolved:
- (a) subject to paragraph (b)—on the voices; or
 - (b) if:
 - (i) the President is unable to determine the result of the voting on the voices; or
 - (ii) any of the creditors and their representatives requests a poll, whether the request is made before the motion is put to the vote on the voices or after the President announces the result of the vote on the voices; or
 - (iii) the motion relates to a matter in respect of which this Act requires the passing of a resolution or special resolution;
- by a poll taken:
- (iv) by a show of hands or written votes of creditors, or proxies or attorneys, participating in person; and
 - (v) by statements made by telephone to the President by creditors, or proxies or attorneys, participating by telephone.
- (8) For the purposes of determining whether a motion proposed at the meeting is resolved, the value of a creditor who:
- (a) has been assigned a debt; and
 - (b) is present at the meeting personally, by telephone, by attorney or by proxy; and
 - (c) is voting on the motion;
- is to be worked out by taking the value of the assigned debt to be equal to the value of the consideration that the creditor gave for the assignment of the debt.

64ZBA Creditors' resolution without meeting

- (1) The trustee may at any time put a proposal to the creditors by giving a notice under this section.
- (2) The notice must:
- (a) contain a single proposal; and
 - (b) include a statement of the reasons for the proposal and the likely impact it will have on creditors (if it is passed); and
 - (c) be given to each creditor who would be entitled under section 64A to receive notice of a meeting of creditors; and
 - (d) invite the creditor to either:
 - (i) vote Yes or No on the proposal; or
 - (ii) object to the proposal being resolved without a meeting of creditors; and
 - (e) specify a time by which replies must be received by the trustee (in order to be taken into account).
- (3) If, within the time specified in the notice:
- (a) at least 1 creditor votes in writing; and
 - (b) no other creditor objects in writing to the proposal being resolved without a meeting of creditors;

then the following provisions have effect:

- (c) if the proposal requires a special resolution and there is a Yes vote by a majority in number, and at least 75% in value, of those who voted within the required time—the proposal is taken to have been passed by a special resolution of creditors at a meeting;
 - (d) if the proposal does not require a special resolution and there is a Yes vote by a majority in value of those who voted within the required time—the proposal is taken to have been passed by a resolution of creditors at a meeting;
 - (e) in any other case—the proposal is taken not to have been passed.
- (4) A certificate signed by the trustee stating any matter relating to a proposal under this section is prima facie evidence of the matter.

64ZC Appointment of proxies [see Table B]

- (1) An instrument appointing a proxy must set out:
 - (a) the full name, and the address of a place of residence or business, of the creditor; and
 - (b) the full name, and the address of a place of residence or business, of the person appointed as proxy.
- (2) An instrument appointing a proxy may appoint more than one person as proxy but:
 - (a) if the first person named in the instrument as a proxy is participating in person or by telephone in the meeting, only that person may cast the creditor's vote; and
 - (b) any other person named in the instrument as a proxy may cast the creditor's vote if, and only if, that person is participating in person or by telephone in the meeting and no person named in the instrument as a proxy before the name of that person is participating in person or by telephone in the meeting.
- (3) An instrument appointing a proxy must set out the bankrupt's name and must state whether the appointment relates to a particular meeting or to all meetings.
- (4) An instrument appointing a proxy may authorise the proxy to cast the creditor's vote at a meeting to which the proxy relates on all matters arising at the meeting or may authorise the proxy to cast the creditor's vote at that meeting only on matters specified in the instrument.
- (5) An instrument appointing a proxy may direct the proxy as to the manner in which the proxy is to vote on a particular matter or matters that may arise at the meeting or on a particular motion or motions that may be proposed at the meeting.
- (6) If an instrument appointing a proxy purports to appoint the bankrupt as a proxy, the purported appointment does not have any effect but, if the instrument also appoints another person as a proxy, the appointment of the other person is not affected and the instrument has effect as if the purported appointment of the bankrupt were not included.

64ZD Provisions relating to motions and amendments of motions

- (1) Subject to the right of the trustee to propose a motion relating to the trustee's remuneration under subsection 64U(4), the only persons who may propose motions, or amendments of motions, at a meeting are the creditors and their representatives.
- (2) A motion or amendment does not need to be seconded.
- (3) If a motion is proposed, the person presiding at the meeting must allow a reasonable time for debate on the motion and on any amendment proposed to the motion.

- (4) After a reasonable time for debate has elapsed, the person presiding must:
 - (a) if no amendment has been proposed—put the motion to a vote; or
 - (b) if an amendment or amendments have been proposed, put the amendment or amendments to a vote; and
 - (i) if the amendment or amendments are defeated—put the original motion to a vote; or
 - (ii) if an amendment or amendments are passed—put the original motion as amended to a vote.
- (5) If a question arises as to the terms of a motion or amendment that is being put to a vote, the person presiding must read the motion or amendment to the meeting.

64ZE Joint bankruptcies [see Table B]

- (1) At a meeting of the creditors in a joint bankruptcy, the trustee must explain to the creditors and their representatives the likely effect of section 110 with respect to the distribution of dividends.
- (2) At a meeting of the creditors in a bankruptcy to which section 141 applies, the trustee must explain to the creditors and their representatives the likely effect of section 141 with respect to the distribution of dividends.

64ZF Substantial compliance to be sufficient

A meeting, or anything done at a meeting, is not invalid because a requirement of this Subdivision has not been strictly complied with if the requirement has been substantially complied with.

Division 5A—Committee of inspection

70 Committee of inspection

- (1) The creditors who are entitled to vote may, at a meeting of the creditors, by resolution appoint a committee of inspection for the purpose of advising and superintending the trustee.
- (2) The committee of inspection shall consist of not more than 5 and not less than 3 persons.

 - (b) he or she is a person whom a creditor intends to authorize to act for him or her in relation to the bankruptcy.
- (4) A creditor or other person referred to in paragraph (3)(a) is not qualified to act as a member of the committee of inspection until, in the case of a creditor, his or her proof of debt or, in the case of another person, the creditor's proof of debt, has been admitted and a person referred to in paragraph (3)(b) is not qualified so to act until the creditor has authorized him or her to act for the creditor in relation to the bankruptcy and the creditor's proof of debt has been admitted.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), the committee of inspection shall meet at such times as the committee appoints from time to time.
- (6) The trustee or a member of the committee may call a meeting of the committee at any time.
- (7) The committee may act by a majority of its members present at a meeting but, except as provided by the next succeeding section, shall not act unless a majority of its members is present at the meeting.

71 Vacation of office etc.

- (1) A member of a committee of inspection may resign his or her office by notice in writing signed by him or her and delivered to, or sent by post to, the trustee.
- (2) The office of a member of such a committee becomes vacant if:
 - (a) he or she becomes a bankrupt; or
 - (b) he or she executes a personal insolvency agreement; or
 - (c) he or she is absent from 5 consecutive meetings of the committee; or
 - (d) in the case of a member who is not a creditor, he or she ceases to be a person authorized by a creditor to act for him or her in relation to the bankruptcy.
- (3) A member of such a committee may be removed from office by resolution at a meeting of creditors of which 7 days' notice, stating the object of the meeting, has been given.
- (4) Where:
 - (a) a vacancy has occurred in the membership of such a committee; and
 - (b) there are 2 or more continuing members;the continuing members may act notwithstanding the vacancy and may appoint an eligible person to fill the vacancy.

- (5) Where the number of members of such a committee is at any time less than 2, a creditor may request the trustee to convene a meeting of creditors for the purpose of filling the vacancy or all or any of the vacancies and the trustee shall convene a meeting accordingly.

72 Member of committee not to purchase part of estate

- (1) A member of the committee of inspection shall not, while acting as such a member, except by leave of the Court, either directly or indirectly, become purchaser of any part of the property of the bankrupt.
- (2) Where a member of the committee of inspection is a person authorized by a creditor to act for the creditor in relation to the bankruptcy, the creditor shall not, while that person is acting as a member of the committee, except by leave of the Court, either directly or indirectly, become purchaser of any part of the property of the bankrupt.
- (3) A purchase made in contravention of this section may be set aside by the Court on the application of a creditor.

Division 6—Composition or arrangement with creditors

73 Composition or arrangement [see Table B]

- (1) Where a bankrupt desires to make a proposal to his or her creditors for:
 - (a) a composition in satisfaction of his or her debts; or
 - (b) a scheme of arrangement of his or her affairs;he or she may lodge with the trustee a proposal in writing signed by him or her setting out the terms of the proposed composition or scheme of arrangement and particulars of any sureties or securities forming part of the proposal.
- (1A) The trustee must, within 2 working days after receiving the proposal, give a copy of the proposal to the Official Receiver for the District in which the bankrupt resides.
- (1B) For the purposes of subsection (1A), a working day is a day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in the District in which the bankrupt resides.
- (2) The trustee shall call a meeting of creditors and shall send to each creditor before the meeting a copy of the proposal accompanied by a report on it.
- (2A) The report must indicate whether the proposal would benefit the bankrupt's creditors generally.
- (2AA) The report must name each creditor who was identified as a related entity of the bankrupt in the bankrupt's statement of affairs.
- (2B) The trustee may refuse to call the meeting if the proposal does not make adequate provision for payment to the trustee of accrued fees that:
 - (a) are owing to the trustee (at the time the proposal is lodged) in respect of the administration of the bankrupt's estate, but are not able to be taken out of the bankrupt's estate; and
 - (b) have been approved by the creditors before the proposal is considered.
- (3) The bankrupt may, at the meeting, amend the terms of his or her proposal, but not in a way that reduces any provision for payment to the trustee of fees referred to in subsection (2B).
- (4) The creditors may, by special resolution, accept the proposal.
- (5) A creditor who has proved his or her debt may assent to or dissent from the proposal by written notice to that effect delivered to the trustee before the meeting or sent by post to the trustee and received by him or her before the meeting, and in that case the creditor shall, for the purposes of this Division, be deemed to have been present at the meeting and to have voted according to his or her assent or dissent.

73A Trustee may require surety for cost of meeting

- (1) Before calling a meeting under section 73, the trustee may require the bankrupt to lodge with the trustee an amount that is sufficient to cover:
 - (a) the estimated costs that will be incurred by the trustee in arranging and holding the meeting; and
 - (b) the estimated fee that will (if approved by the creditors) be payable to the trustee in respect of the meeting.

- (2) If the amount lodged by the bankrupt is more than the actual costs and fee, then the trustee must refund the excess to the bankrupt.

73B Declaration of relationships by proposed trustee of composition or scheme of arrangement

- (1) This section applies if the proposal provides that a person (the proposed trustee) other than the trustee of the bankrupt's estate is to become the trustee of the composition or scheme of arrangement.
- (2) The proposed trustee must make a written declaration stating whether the bankrupt is a related entity of:
 - (a) the proposed trustee; or
 - (b) a related entity of the proposed trustee.
- (3) The proposed trustee must:
 - (a) give a copy of the declaration to the Official Receiver; and
 - (b) give a copy of the declaration to the trustee of the bankrupt's estate; and
 - (c) keep a copy of the declaration.
- (4) The trustee of the bankrupt's estate must give a copy of the declaration to each of the creditors at the same time as the trustee gives a copy of the subsection 73(2) report to each creditor.

73C Statement of affairs and declarations of relationships to be tabled at meeting

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a meeting that is called under section 73.

Bankrupt's statement of affairs

- (2) The trustee must table at the meeting a copy of the bankrupt's statement of affairs.
- (3) If:
 - (a) the bankrupt had been required, immediately before the start of the meeting, to prepare a statement of affairs; and
 - (b) that statement would have differed in one or more material respects from the statement a copy of which was tabled under subsection (2);the bankrupt must table at the meeting a written statement identifying those differences.

Proposed trustee's declaration

- (4) If the proposal provides that a person (the proposed trustee) other than the trustee of the bankrupt's estate is to become the trustee of the composition or scheme of arrangement, the trustee of the bankrupt's estate must table at the meeting a copy of the declaration made by the proposed trustee under subsection 73B(2).
- (5) If:
 - (a) the proposal provides that a person (the proposed trustee) other than the trustee of the bankrupt's estate is to become the trustee of the composition or scheme of arrangement; and

- (b) assuming that the proposed trustee had been required, immediately before the start of the meeting, to make a declaration stating whether the bankrupt is a related entity of:
 - (i) the proposed trustee; or
 - (ii) a related entity of the proposed trustee;that declaration would have differed in one or more material respects from the declaration made by the proposed trustee under subsection 73B(2);
the proposed trustee must table at the meeting a written statement identifying those differences.

74 Annulment of bankruptcy [see Table B]

- (5) Upon the passing of a special resolution at a meeting of creditors of a bankrupt under subsection 73(4), the bankruptcy is annulled, by force of this subsection, on the date on which the special resolution was passed.
- (5A) The trustee must, as soon as practicable after that date, give the Official Receiver a written notice setting out the name and the bankruptcy number of the former bankrupt and the date of the annulment.
- (6) Where a bankruptcy is annulled under this section, all sales and dispositions of property and payments duly made, and all acts done, by the trustee or any person acting under the authority of the trustee or the Court before the annulment shall be deemed to have been validly made or done but, subject to subsection (7), the property of the bankrupt still vested in the trustee vests in such person as the Court appoints or, in default of such an appointment, reverts to the bankrupt for all his or her estate or interest in it, on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Court orders.
- (7) Where a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth requires the transmission of property to be registered, any such property vested in the trustee at the time of the annulment of the bankruptcy, notwithstanding that it vests in equity in such person as the Court appoints or in the bankrupt, as the case may be, does not vest in that person or the bankrupt at law until the requirements of that law have been complied with.

74A Variation of composition or scheme of arrangement

- (1) This section applies to a composition or scheme of arrangement that has been accepted in accordance with this Division.

Variation by special resolution of creditors

- (2) The creditors, with the written consent of the debtor, may vary the composition or scheme by special resolution at a meeting called for the purpose.

Variation proposal by trustee

- (3) The trustee may, in writing, propose a variation of the composition or scheme. The trustee cannot propose a variation without the written consent of the debtor.
- (4) The trustee must give notice of the proposed variation to all the creditors who would be entitled under section 64A (as that section applies in accordance with section 76A) to receive notice of a meeting of creditors.
- (5) The notice must:

- (a) include a statement of the reasons for the variation and the likely impact it will have on creditors (if it takes effect); and
 - (b) specify a proposed date of effect for the variation (at least 14 days after the notice is given); and
 - (c) state that any creditor may, by written notice to the trustee at least 2 days before the specified date, object to the variation taking effect without there being a meeting of creditors.
- (6) If no creditor lodges a written notice of objection with the trustee at least 2 days before the specified date, then the proposed variation takes effect on the date specified in the notice.
- (7) A certificate signed by the trustee stating any matter relating to a proposed variation under this section is prima facie evidence of the matter.

75 Effect of composition or scheme of arrangement [see Table B]

- (1) Subject to this section, a composition or scheme of arrangement accepted in accordance with this Division is binding on all the creditors of the bankrupt so far as relates to provable debts due to them from the bankrupt.
- (2) The acceptance of a composition or scheme of arrangement does not:
 - (a) except with the consent of the creditor to whom the debt is due, release the bankrupt from a provable debt that would not be released by his or her discharge from bankruptcy; or
 - (b) release any other person from any liability from which he or she would not be released by the discharge of the bankrupt.
- (3) The provisions of a composition or scheme of arrangement that has been accepted in accordance with this Division may be enforced by the Court on application by a person interested, and disobedience of an order of the Court made on the application is a contempt of the Court and is punishable accordingly.

76 Application of Part VIII to trustee of a composition or arrangement

- (1) Part VIII applies, with any modifications prescribed by the regulations, in relation to the trustee of a composition or scheme of arrangement under this Division as if the debtor were a bankrupt and the trustee were the trustee in his or her bankruptcy.
- (2) If, after taking into account the modifications prescribed by the regulations, a provision of Part VIII is incapable of application in relation to the trustee of a composition or scheme of arrangement, or is inconsistent with this Division, that provision does not so have application.

76A Meetings of creditors

Division 5 of Part IV applies, so far as it is capable of applying and with such modifications (if any) as are prescribed by the regulations, to meetings of creditors under this Division.

76B Setting aside and termination of a composition or scheme of arrangement

Sections 222 to 222D, 224 and 224A apply, with such modifications (if any) as are prescribed by the regulations, in relation to a composition or scheme of arrangement under this Division as if:

- (a) the composition or scheme were a personal insolvency agreement executed by the debtor; and

(b) the trustee of the composition or scheme were the trustee of the personal insolvency agreement.

- (2) In this section:

77AA Access by Official Receiver and others to premises

- (1) The Official Receiver, or an officer authorised in writing by the Official Receiver to exercise powers under this section, is entitled at all reasonable times to full and free access to all premises and books for any purpose of this Act, and for that purpose:

96 Proof in respect of proportionate part of periodical payment

Where a person who is liable to make any periodical payments (including rent) becomes a bankrupt on a day other than a day on which such a payment becomes due, the person entitled to the payments may prove in the bankruptcy for a proportionate part of a payment in respect of the period from the date when the last payment became due to the date of the bankruptcy, as if the payment accrued due from day to day.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the rights of the third party in respect of any balance due to him or her after the payment referred to in that subsection has been made.

(5) Subject to this section, where notice in writing of the presentation of a creditor's petition against a debtor is given to a creditor:

- the charge or charging order, as the case may be, is void as against the trustee in the bankruptcy.
- (10) Subsections (5), (6) and (9) do not apply in relation to the attachment of a debt due to a debtor, or to a charge or charging order against property of a debtor, in respect of any liability of the debtor under a maintenance agreement or maintenance order (whether entered into or made, as the case may be, before or after the commencement of this section).

- (3) Where notice of the presentation of a creditor's petition against a debtor has been given under subsection (1) to a sheriff or notice of the reference to the Court of a debtor's petition against a debtor has been given under subsection (2) to a sheriff, a creditor who has issued a process of execution, or on whose behalf a process of execution has been issued, against property of the debtor, or who has taken action, or on whose behalf action has been taken, to attach a debt due to the debtor, in respect of a liability of the debtor under a maintenance agreement or maintenance order (whether entered into or made, as the case may be, before or after the commencement of this section) may give to the sheriff a written notice setting out details of the maintenance agreement or maintenance order, and, upon the giving of the notice, subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, ceases to apply in relation to the process of execution or attachment, as the case may be.
- (4) Subject to this section, where notice in writing of the presentation of a creditor's petition against a debtor is given to the registrar or other appropriate officer of a court:
- (a) to which the proceeds of the sale of property of the debtor or other moneys have been paid by a sheriff in pursuance of a process of execution issued, by or on behalf of a creditor, against property of the debtor; or

 - (8) A failure by a sheriff to comply with a provision of this section does not affect the title of a person who purchases property of a bankrupt in good faith under a sale by the sheriff in pursuance of a process of execution issued by or on behalf of a creditor.

119A Duties of sheriff after receiving notice of bankruptcy etc.

[see Table B]

- (1) Where a debtor has become a bankrupt (whether on a creditor's petition or otherwise and whether before or after the commencement of this section), the trustee may give to the sheriff or to the registrar or other appropriate officer of a court, notice in writing of that fact and, upon the giving of the notice:
 - (a) the sheriff shall deliver or pay to the trustee:
 - (i) any property of the bankrupt in his or her possession under a process of execution issued by or on behalf of a creditor;
 - (ii) any proceeds of the sale of property of the bankrupt or other moneys in his or her possession, being proceeds of the sale of property sold, whether before or after the bankrupt became a bankrupt, in pursuance of any such process or moneys seized, or paid to avoid seizure or sale of property of the bankrupt, whether before or after the bankrupt became a bankrupt, in pursuance of any such process; and
 - (iii) any moneys in his or her possession as a result of the attachment, by or on behalf of a creditor, of a debt due to the bankrupt; or
 - (b) the registrar or other officer of the court shall pay to the trustee:
 - (i) any proceeds of the sale of property of the bankrupt or other moneys in court, being proceeds of sale or other moneys paid into court, whether before or after the bankrupt became a bankrupt, by a sheriff in pursuance of a process of execution issued, by or on behalf of a creditor, against property of the bankrupt; and

- (ii) any moneys in court that have been paid into court, whether before or after the bankrupt became a bankrupt, in pursuance of proceedings instituted, by or on behalf of a creditor, to attach a debt due to the bankrupt;
as the case requires.
- (2) Where property is, or the proceeds of the sale of property or other moneys are, required by subsection (1) to be delivered or paid to the trustee, the costs of the execution or attachment, as the case may be, are a first charge on that property or those proceeds of sale or other moneys, as the case may be.
- (3) For the purpose of giving effect to the charge referred to in subsection (2), the sheriff, registrar or other officer of a court may retain on behalf of the creditor entitled to the benefit of the charge, such amount from the proceeds of sale or other moneys referred to in that subsection as he or she thinks necessary for the purpose.
- (4) Where a sheriff, registrar or other officer of a court has, in pursuance of subsection (1), delivered property or paid moneys to the trustee, the creditor who issued the process of execution or instituted the attachment proceedings, or on whose behalf the process was issued or the proceedings instituted, as the case may be, may prove in the bankruptcy for his or her debt as an unsecured creditor as if the execution or attachment, as the case may be, had not taken place.
- (5) Where:
- (a) a sheriff, registrar or other officer of a court has, in pursuance of subsection (1), delivered to the trustee property that was seized, or paid to the trustee the proceeds of the sale of property or other moneys that were received, as a result of the issue of execution against property of a bankrupt or the attachment of a debt due to a bankrupt; and
 - (b) that property or debt would not have been property divisible amongst the creditors of the bankrupt if the bankrupt had become a bankrupt immediately before the execution was issued or the debt attached, as the case may be;

- (6) Where:
- (a) property has been delivered by a sheriff, or the proceeds of the sale of property or other moneys have been paid by a sheriff, registrar or other officer of a court, to the trustee of the estate of a bankrupt in pursuance of subsection (1); and
 - (b) the property was in the possession of the sheriff, or the proceeds of the sale of the property or the other moneys were in the possession of the sheriff or paid into court, as the case may be, under or in pursuance of a process of execution issued, or proceedings to attach a debt instituted, by or on behalf of a creditor in respect of a liability of the bankrupt under a maintenance agreement or maintenance order (whether entered into or made, as the case may be, before or after the commencement of this section);
- the trustee shall deliver that property, or pay those proceeds or other moneys, as the case requires, to that creditor.
- (7) A failure by a sheriff to comply with a provision of this section does not affect the title of a person who purchases property of a bankrupt in good faith under a sale by the sheriff in pursuance of a process of execution issued by or on behalf of a creditor.

120 Undervalued transactions

Transfers that are void against trustee

- (1) A transfer of property by a person who later becomes a bankrupt (the transferor) to another person (the transferee) is void against the trustee in the transferor's bankruptcy if:
 - (a) the transfer took place in the period beginning 5 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy and ending on the date of the bankruptcy; and
 - (b) the transferee gave no consideration for the transfer or gave consideration of less value than the market value of the property.

Note: For the application of this section where consideration is given to a third party rather than the transferor, see section 121A.

Exemptions

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to:
 - (a) a payment of tax payable under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory; or
 - (b) a transfer to meet all or part of a liability under a maintenance agreement or a maintenance order; or
 - (c) a transfer of property under a debt agreement; or
 - (d) a transfer of property if the transfer is of a kind described in the regulations.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), a transfer is not void against the trustee if:
 - (a) in the case of a transfer to a related entity of the transferor:
 - (i) the transfer took place more than 4 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy; and
 - (ii) the transferee proves that, at the time of the transfer, the transferor was solvent; or
 - (b) in any other case:
 - (i) the transfer took place more than 2 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy; and
 - (ii) the transferee proves that, at the time of the transfer, the transferor was solvent.

Rebuttable presumption of insolvency

- (3A) For the purposes of subsection (3), a rebuttable presumption arises that the transferor was insolvent at the time of the transfer if it is established that the transferor:
 - (a) had not, in respect of that time, kept such books, accounts and records as are usual and proper in relation to the business carried on by the transferor and as sufficiently disclose the transferor's business transactions and financial position; or
 - (b) having kept such books, accounts and records, has not preserved them.

Refund of consideration

- (4) The trustee must pay to the transferee an amount equal to the value of any consideration that the transferee gave for a transfer that is void against the trustee.

What is not consideration

- (5) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (4), the following have no value as consideration:
 - (a) the fact that the transferee is related to the transferor;

- (b) if the transferee is the spouse or de facto spouse of the transferor—the transferee making a deed in favour of the transferor;
- (c) the transferee's promise to marry, or to become the de facto spouse of, the transferor;
- (d) the transferee's love or affection for the transferor;
- (e) if the transferee is the spouse of the transferor—the transferee granting the transferor a right to live at the transferred property, unless the grant relates to a transfer or settlement of property, or an agreement, under the Family Law Act 1975.

Protection of successors in title

- (6) This section does not affect the rights of a person who acquired property from the transferee in good faith and by giving consideration that was at least as valuable as the market value of the property.

*Meaning of transfer of property and market value

- (7) For the purposes of this section:
 - (a) transfer of property includes a payment of money; and
 - (b) a person who does something that results in another person becoming the owner of property that did not previously exist is taken to have transferred the property to the other person; and
 - (c) the market value of property transferred is its market value at the time of the transfer.

121 Transfers to defeat creditors

Transfers that are void

- (1) A transfer of property by a person who later becomes a bankrupt (the transferor) to another person (the transferee) is void against the trustee in the transferor's bankruptcy if:
 - (a) the property would probably have become part of the transferor's estate or would probably have been available to creditors if the property had not been transferred; and
 - (b) the transferor's main purpose in making the transfer was:
 - (i) to prevent the transferred property from becoming divisible among the transferor's creditors; or
 - (ii) to hinder or delay the process of making property available for division among the transferor's creditors.

Note: For the application of this section where consideration is given to a third party rather than the transferor, see section 121A.

Showing the transferor's main purpose in making a transfer

- (2) The transferor's main purpose in making the transfer is taken to be the purpose described in paragraph (1)(b) if it can reasonably be inferred from all the circumstances that, at the time of the transfer, the transferor was, or was about to become, insolvent.

Other ways of showing the transferor's main purpose in making a transfer

- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit the ways of establishing the transferor's main purpose in making a transfer.

Transfer not void if transferee acted in good faith

- (4) Despite subsection (1), a transfer of property is not void against the trustee if:
- (a) the consideration that the transferee gave for the transfer was at least as valuable as the market value of the property; and
 - (b) the transferee did not know, and could not reasonably have inferred, that the transferor's main purpose in making the transfer was the purpose described in paragraph (1)(b); and
 - (c) the transferee could not reasonably have inferred that, at the time of the transfer, the transferor was, or was about to become, insolvent.

Rebuttable presumption of insolvency

- (4A) For the purposes of this section, a rebuttable presumption arises that the transferor was, or was about to become, insolvent at the time of the transfer if it is established that the transferor:
- (a) had not, in respect of that time, kept such books, accounts and records as are usual and proper in relation to the business carried on by the transferor and as sufficiently disclose the transferor's business transactions and financial position; or
 - (b) having kept such books, accounts and records, has not preserved them.

Refund of consideration

- (5) The trustee must pay to the transferee an amount equal to the value of any consideration that the transferee gave for a transfer that is void against the trustee.

What is not consideration

- (6) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (5), the following have no value as consideration:
- (a) the fact that the transferee is related to the transferor;
 - (b) if the transferee is the spouse or de facto spouse of the transferor—the transferee making a deed in favour of the transferor;
 - (c) the transferee's promise to marry, or to become the de facto spouse of, the transferor;
 - (d) the transferee's love or affection for the transferor;
 - (e) if the transferee is the spouse of the transferor—the transferee granting the transferor a right to live at the transferred property, unless the grant relates to a transfer or settlement of property, or an agreement, under the Family Law Act 1975.

Exemption of transfers of property under debt agreements

- (7) This section does not apply to a transfer of property under a debt agreement.

Protection of successors in title

- (8) This section does not affect the rights of a person who acquired property from the transferee in good faith and for at least the market value of the property.

*Meaning of transfer of property and market value

- (9) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) transfer of property includes a payment of money; and
 - (b) a person who does something that results in another person becoming the owner of property that did not previously exist is taken to have transferred the property to the other person; and

(c) the market value of property transferred is its market value at the time of the transfer.

121A Transactions where consideration given to a third party

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a person who later becomes a bankrupt (the transferor) transfers property to another person (the transferee); and
 - (b) the transferee gives some or all of the consideration for the transfer to a person (a third party) other than the transferor.
- (2) Sections 120 and 121 apply as if the giving of the consideration to the third party were a transfer by the transferor of the property constituting the consideration.
- (3) If the giving of the consideration to the third party is void against the trustee in the transferor's bankruptcy under section 120 or 121, the trustee has the same rights to recover the property constituting the consideration as the trustee would have if the giving of the consideration had actually been a transfer by the transferor of the property constituting the consideration.

122 Avoidance of preferences [see Table B]

- (1) A transfer of property by a person who is insolvent (the debtor) in favour of a creditor is void against the trustee in the debtor's bankruptcy if the transfer:
 - (a) had the effect of giving the creditor a preference, priority or advantage over other creditors; and
 - (b) was made in the period that relates to the debtor, as indicated in the following table.

Periods during which transfers of property may be void
Description of petition leading to debtor's bankruptcy	Period during which the transfer was made
1 Creditor's petition	Period beginning 6 months before the presentation of the petition and ending immediately before the date of the bankruptcy of the debtor
2 Debtor's petition presented when at least one creditor's petition was pending against a petitioning debtor or a member of a partnership against which the debtor's petition was presented	Period beginning on the commencement of the debtor's bankruptcy and ending immediately before the date of the bankruptcy of the debtor
3 Debtor's petition presented in any other circumstances	Period beginning 6 months before the presentation of the petition and ending immediately before the date of the bankruptcy of the debtor

- (1A) Subsection (1) applies in relation to a transfer of property by the debtor in favour of a creditor:
 - (a) whether or not the liability of the debtor to the creditor is his or her separate liability or is a liability with another person or other persons jointly; and
 - (b) whether or not the property transferred is the debtor's own property or is the property of the debtor and one or more other persons.

- (2) Nothing in this section affects:
- (a) the rights of a purchaser, payee or encumbrancer in the ordinary course of business who acted in good faith and who gave consideration at least as valuable as the market value of the property; or
 - (b) the rights of a person who is making title through or under a creditor of the debtor in good faith and who gave consideration at least as valuable as the market value of the property; or
 - (c) a conveyance, transfer, charge, payment or obligation of the debtor executed, made or incurred under or in pursuance of a maintenance agreement or maintenance order; or
 - (d) a transfer of property under a debt agreement.

- This Subdivision enables the recovery of superannuation contributions made to defeat the bankrupt's creditors.
- There are 2 types of recoverable contributions:
 - (a) contributions made by a person who later becomes a bankrupt (see section 128B);
 - (b) contributions made by a third party for the benefit of a person who later becomes a bankrupt (see section 128C).
- Superannuation accounts may be frozen for up to 180 days pending the taking of recovery action under section 139ZQ or 139ZU.

128B Superannuation contributions made to defeat creditors—contributor is a person who later becomes a bankrupt

Transfers that are void

- (1) A transfer of property by a person who later becomes a bankrupt (the transferor) to another person (the transferee) is void against the trustee in the transferor's bankruptcy if:
 - (a) the transfer is made by way of a contribution to an eligible superannuation plan; and
 - (b) the property would probably have become part of the transferor's estate or would probably have been available to creditors if the property had not been transferred; and
 - (c) the transferor's main purpose in making the transfer was:
 - (i) to prevent the transferred property from becoming divisible among the transferor's creditors; or
 - (ii) to hinder or delay the process of making property available for division among the transferor's creditors; and
 - (d) the transfer occurs on or after 28 July 2006.

Showing the transferor's main purpose in making a transfer

- (2) The transferor's main purpose in making the transfer is taken to be the purpose described in paragraph (1)(c) if it can reasonably be inferred from all the circumstances that, at the time of the transfer, the transferor was, or was about to become, insolvent.
- (3) In determining whether the transferor's main purpose in making the transfer was the purpose described in paragraph (1)(c), regard must be had to:
 - (a) whether, during any period ending before the transfer, the transferor had established a pattern of making contributions to one or more eligible superannuation plans; and
 - (b) if so, whether the transfer, when considered in the light of that pattern, is out of character.

Other ways of showing the transferor's main purpose in making a transfer

- (4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not limit the ways of establishing the transferor's main purpose in making a transfer.

Rebuttable presumption of insolvency

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a rebuttable presumption arises that the transferor was, or was about to become, insolvent at the time of the transfer if it is established that the transferor:

- (4) In determining whether the beneficiary's main purpose in entering into the scheme was the purpose described in paragraph (1)(e), regard must be had to:
 - (a) whether, during any period ending before the scheme was entered into, the transferor had established a pattern of making contributions to one or more eligible superannuation plans for the benefit of the beneficiary; and
 - (b) if so, whether the transfer, when considered in the light of that pattern, is out of character.

139CA Definition of examinable period

- (1) For the purposes of this Division, the examinable period is:
 - (a) in the case of an application for an order in relation to a related entity of the bankrupt—the period beginning:
 - (i) if, at a time or times during the period of 1 year beginning 5 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy, the bankrupt became insolvent—at that time, or at the first of those times, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) in any other case—4 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy; and ending on the day on which the application is made; or
 - (b) in any other case—the period beginning:
 - (i) if, at a time or times during the period of 3 years beginning 5 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy, the bankrupt became insolvent—at that time, or at the first of those times, as the case may be; or
 - (ii) in any other case—2 years before the commencement of the bankruptcy; and ending on the day on which the application is made.
- (2) For the purposes of subparagraphs (1)(a)(i) and (b)(i), a rebuttable presumption arises that a bankrupt became insolvent at a time during the period referred to in the relevant subparagraph if it is established that the bankrupt:
 - (a) had not, in respect of that time, kept such books, accounts and records as are usual and proper in relation to the business carried on by the transferor and as sufficiently disclose the transferor's business transactions and financial position; or
 - (b) having kept such books, accounts and records, has not preserved them.

 - (b) either:
 - (i) the bankrupt received for those services no remuneration in money or other property; or

 - (c) during the examinable period, the entity acquired an estate in particular property as a direct or indirect result of, or of matters including, the supply by the bankrupt of those services;
 - (d) the bankrupt used, or derived (whether directly or indirectly) a benefit from, the property at a time or times during the examinable period when the bankrupt controlled the entity in relation to the property; and
 - (e) the entity still has an estate in the property;subsections (2) and (3) have effect, whether or not the bankrupt has ever had an estate in the property.
- (2) The Court may, by order, vest in the applicant:
 - (a) the entity's estate in the whole, or in a specified part, of the property; or

 - (b) either:
 - (i) the bankrupt received for those services no remuneration in money or other property; or
 - (ii) the remuneration in money or other property that the bankrupt received for those services was substantially less in amount or value than a person supplying those services in similar circumstances might reasonably be expected to have received if the person had dealt with the entity at arm's length in relation to the supply of those services; and
 - (c) the entity's net worth at a particular time during the examinable period exceeded by a substantial amount what might reasonably be expected to have been the entity's net worth at the last-mentioned time if those services had not been supplied;subsection (2) has effect.
- (2) The Court may by order direct:
 - (a) if the entity is a partnership—a partner or partners in the partnership; or

 - (b) the bankrupt used, or derived (whether directly or indirectly) a benefit from, the property at a time or times during the examinable period;
- the Court may, by order, direct the entity to pay to the applicant a specified amount not exceeding the amount by which the value of the entity's interest in the property increased as a result of the financial contributions made by the bankrupt.

 - (b) it is reinvested, accumulated or capitalised; or
 - (c) it is dealt with on behalf of the bankrupt or as the bankrupt directs.

- (2) A reference in this Division to the income that a bankrupt is likely to derive during a contribution assessment period includes a reference to income that the bankrupt has derived during that period.
- (3) A reference in this Division to income derived by a bankrupt during a contribution assessment period includes a reference to income so derived in respect of work done or services performed by the bankrupt before that period or work to be done or services to be performed by the bankrupt after that period.

139N Income varied by income tax payments and refunds and child support payments

- (1) The income that is likely to be derived, or was derived, by a bankrupt during a contribution assessment period:

 - (iii) if the bankrupt pays or is likely to be liable to pay, or paid or was liable to pay, as the case may be, during that period an amount for the support of a child pursuant to a maintenance agreement entered into under the Family Law Act 1975 or under a maintenance order—so much of that amount as does not exceed the maximum amount that, but for that agreement or order, the bankrupt could be, or could have been, liable to pay during that period in respect of child support under the Child Support (Assessment) Act 1989; and
 - (b) is taken to be increased by any amount that the bankrupt receives or is likely to receive, or received or was entitled to receive, as the case may be, during that period as a refund of income tax.

- (3) If a refund relates to a year of income that commenced before, but ended after, the date of the bankruptcy, then it is taken into account under paragraph (1)(b) only to the extent that the refund is attributable to the part of the year of income after the date of bankruptcy. For this purpose, the refund is apportioned on a time basis.

Subdivision D—Liability of bankrupt to pay contributions

139P Liability of bankrupt to pay contribution

- (1) Subject to section 139Q, if the income that a bankrupt is likely to derive during a contribution assessment period as assessed by the trustee under an original assessment exceeds the actual income threshold amount applicable in relation to the bankrupt when that assessment is made, the bankrupt is liable to pay to the trustee a contribution in respect of that period.
- (2) Subject to section 139Q, if the income that a bankrupt is likely to derive during a contribution assessment period as assessed by the trustee under an original assessment does not exceed the actual income threshold amount applicable in relation to the bankrupt when that assessment is made, the bankrupt is not liable to, but may if he or she so wishes, pay to the trustee a contribution in respect of that period.

139Q Change in liability of bankrupt

- (1) If the income that a bankrupt is likely to derive, or derived, during a contribution assessment period as assessed by the trustee under a subsequent assessment exceeds the actual income threshold amount applicable in relation to the bankrupt when the subsequent assessment is made, the bankrupt is liable to pay to the trustee a contribution in respect of that period.
- (2) The liability of the bankrupt under subsection (1) in respect of a contribution assessment period is in substitution for any liability of the bankrupt in respect of that period under subsection 139P(1) or under any previous application of subsection (1) of this section and has effect despite subsection 139P(2).
- (3) If the income that a bankrupt is likely to derive, or derived, during a contribution assessment period as assessed by the trustee under a subsequent assessment does not exceed the actual income threshold amount applicable in relation to the bankrupt when the subsequent assessment is made:
 - (a) the bankrupt is not liable to, but may if he or she so wishes, pay to the trustee a contribution in respect of that income; and
 - (b) any liability that the bankrupt had under subsection 139P(1) or under subsection (1) of this section to pay a contribution in respect of that period is extinguished.

139R Liability not affected by subsequent discharge

Any liability of a bankrupt under section 139P or 139Q is not affected by his or her discharge from bankruptcy after the making of the assessment that gave rise to the liability.

139S Contribution payable by bankrupt

The contribution that a bankrupt is liable to pay in respect of a contribution assessment period is the amount worked out in accordance with the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Assessed income} - \text{Actual income threshold amount}}{2}$$

where:

Assessed income means the amount assessed by the trustee to be the income that the bankrupt is likely to derive, or derived, during the contribution assessment period.

Actual income threshold amount means the actual income threshold amount assessed by the trustee to be applicable in relation to the bankrupt when the assessment is made.

139T Determination of higher income threshold in cases of hardship

- (1) If:
 - (a) the trustee has made an assessment of a contribution that a bankrupt is liable to pay to the trustee for a contribution assessment period; and
 - (b) the bankrupt considers that, if required to pay that contribution, he or she will suffer hardship for a reason or reasons set out in subsection (2);

the bankrupt may apply in writing to the trustee for the making of a determination under this section for that period.

- (2) The reasons are as follows:
 - (a) the bankrupt or a dependant of the bankrupt suffers from an illness or disability that requires on-going medical attention and the supply of medicines, and the bankrupt is required to meet a substantial proportion of the costs of that medical attention or those medicines from his or her income;
 - (b) the bankrupt is required to make payments from his or her income to meet the cost of child day-care to enable the bankrupt to continue in employment or other work;
 - (c) the bankrupt is living in rented accommodation that is not provided by:
 - (i) the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
 - (ii) an authority of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory; or
 - (iii) a local government authority;and the bankrupt is required to pay the cost of that accommodation wholly or mainly from his or her income;
 - (d) the bankrupt incurs substantial expense in travelling to and from the bankrupt's place of employment or other work, whether by public transport or otherwise;
 - (e) the spouse of the bankrupt, or another person residing with the bankrupt, who ordinarily contributes to the costs of maintaining the bankrupt's household has become unable to contribute to those costs because of unemployment, illness or injury;
 - (f) any other reason prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The trustee must not make a determination under this section unless the bankrupt provides satisfactory evidence of the bankrupt's income and expenses, and any other matters on which the bankrupt relies to establish the reasons for the application.
- (4) The trustee must decide the application as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than 30 days, after the day on which the application is received.
- (5) If the trustee does not make a decision on the application within that period of 30 days, the trustee is taken to have made a decision at the end of that period refusing the application.
- (6) If the trustee is satisfied that the bankrupt will suffer hardship if required to pay the contribution, the trustee may determine that, for the purposes of the application of section 139S in relation to the bankrupt in respect of the contribution assessment period, the actual income threshold amount that was applicable in relation to the bankrupt when the assessment was made is taken to have been increased to such amount as the trustee determines.
- (7) If the trustee is not satisfied that the bankrupt will suffer hardship if required to pay the contribution, the trustee must refuse the application.
- (8) If the trustee makes a determination under subsection (6), the trustee must make such assessment under section 139W as is necessary to give effect to the determination.
- (9) The trustee must give written notice to the bankrupt:
 - (a) setting out the trustee's decision on the application; and
 - (b) referring to the evidence or other material on which the decision was based; and
 - (c) giving the reasons for the decision.
- (10) The notice must include a statement to the effect that the bankrupt may request the Inspector-General to review the decision.
- (11) A contravention of subsection (10) in relation to a decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

- (12) The trustee's decision under this section is reviewable under Subdivision G in the same way as an assessment made by the trustee.

Subdivision E—Provision of information to trustee

139U Bankrupt to provide evidence of income

- (1) A bankrupt must, as soon as practicable, and in any event not later than 21 days, after the end of a contribution assessment period, give to the trustee:
- (a) a statement:
 - (i) setting out particulars of all the income that was derived by the bankrupt during that contribution assessment period; and
 - (ia) setting out particulars of all the income that was derived by each dependant of the bankrupt during that contribution assessment period; and
 - (ii) indicating what income (if any) the bankrupt expects to derive during the next contribution assessment period; and
 - (iii) indicating what income (if any) the bankrupt expects each dependant of the bankrupt to derive during the next contribution assessment period; and
 - (b) such books evidencing the derivation of the income referred to in subparagraph (a)(i) as are in the possession of the bankrupt or the bankrupt can readily obtain.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) The particulars that a bankrupt is required to include in a statement given to the trustee under subparagraphs (1)(a)(i) and (ia) are all the particulars that are known to the bankrupt and any particulars that the bankrupt can readily obtain.
- (3) Without limiting the generality of paragraph (1)(b), the books that a bankrupt is required to give to the trustee under that paragraph in respect of a contribution assessment period include:
- (a) if the bankrupt received from his or her employer one or more pay slips or other documents evidencing salary or wages paid to him or her by that employer during that period—that document or each of those documents; and
 - (b) any copy of a group certificate or payment summary (within the meaning of section 16-170 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953) in the possession of the bankrupt that relates in whole or in part to that period; and
 - (c) any statement provided to the bankrupt by an ADI or other financial institution that shows periodic payments made during that period to an account kept by the bankrupt (either alone or jointly with any other person) with that institution; and
 - (d) any notice of assessment issued to the bankrupt under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 in respect of a year of income in which that period is included; and
 - (e) if the bankrupt is in receipt of a pension, allowance or other benefit under a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory—any letter or other document sent or given to the bankrupt by the Department or authority that administers the legislation or scheme under which the benefit is provided.

139V Power of trustee to require bankrupt to provide additional evidence

If the trustee has reasonable grounds to suspect that:

- (a) any particulars set out in the statement given by the bankrupt under subsection 139U(1) are false or misleading in a material respect; or

(b) any material particulars have been omitted from that statement;
then, for the purpose of enabling the trustee to decide whether the particulars set out in the statement are correct, the trustee, by written notice given to the bankrupt, may require the bankrupt to give to the trustee within a specified period of not less than 14 days such information or books as are specified in the notice.

Subdivision F—Assessments of income and contribution

139W Assessment of bankrupt’s income and contribution

- (1) As soon as practicable after the start of each contribution assessment period in relation to a bankrupt, the trustee is to make an assessment of the income that is likely to be derived, or was derived, by the bankrupt during that period, of the actual income threshold amount that is applicable in relation to the bankrupt when the assessment is made and of the contribution (if any) that the bankrupt is liable to pay in respect of that period under section 139S.
- (2) If at any time, whether during or after a contribution assessment period, any one or more of the following paragraphs applies or apply:
 - (a) the trustee is satisfied that the income that is likely to be derived, or was derived, by the bankrupt during that period is or was greater or less than the amount of that income as assessed by the last preceding assessment in respect of that period;
 - (b) the base income threshold amount increased or decreased after the making of the last preceding assessment in respect of that period and before the end of that period;
 - (c) the trustee is satisfied that the number of the bankrupt’s dependants increased or decreased after the making of the last preceding assessment and before the end of that period;the trustee is to make a fresh assessment of the income that is likely to be derived, or was derived, by the bankrupt during that period, of the actual income threshold amount that is applicable in relation to the bankrupt when the assessment is made and of the contribution (if any) that the bankrupt is liable to pay in respect of that period.
- (3) The powers of the trustee under subsection (2) may be exercised on the trustee’s own initiative or at the bankrupt’s request, but the trustee is not required to consider whether to exercise those powers at the bankrupt’s request unless the bankrupt satisfies the trustee that there are reasonable grounds for the trustee to do so.
- (4) As soon as practicable after the making of an assessment the trustee must give to the bankrupt written notice setting out particulars of the assessment and informing the bankrupt about the possibility of a variation under section 139T.

139WA No time limit on making assessment

- (1) An assessment under section 139W (including a fresh assessment referred to in subsection 139W(2)) for a contribution assessment period may be made at any time, including:
 - (a) a time after the end of the contribution assessment period;
 - (b) a time after the bankrupt is discharged.
- (2) For the purpose of applying subsection (1), a reference in this Division to a bankrupt includes a reference to a former bankrupt.

139X Basis of assessments

- (1) In making an assessment of the income that is likely to be derived, or was derived, by a bankrupt during a contribution assessment period the trustee may have regard to any information provided by the bankrupt or any other information in the trustee's possession.
- (2) If the trustee considers that any information provided by the bankrupt is or may be incorrect, the trustee may disregard that information and may make an assessment on the basis of what the trustee considers to be the correct information.

139Y Trustee may regard bankrupt as receiving reasonable remuneration

- (1) If:
 - (a) the bankrupt is engaging or has engaged during a contribution assessment period in employment or other work or in activities that resemble employment or other work; and
 - (b) the bankrupt does not receive or did not receive any remuneration in respect of the employment, work or activities or receives or received remuneration that is less than the remuneration (in this subsection called the reasonable remuneration) that:
 - (i) in the case of employment where an industrial award or agreement, or the Australian Fair Pay and Conditions Standard (within the meaning given by the Workplace Relations Act 1996), prescribes rates or minimum rates of salary or wages for the employment—might reasonably be expected to be or to have been received by the bankrupt in respect of the employment by virtue of that industrial award or agreement, or the Australian Fair Pay and Conditions Standard; or
 - (ii) in any other case—might reasonably be expected to be or to have been received by a person who engaged in similar employment, work or activities where there was no relationship or other connection between that person and the person for whom the employment, work or activities were carried out; then, for the purpose of making an assessment, the trustee may determine that the bankrupt receives or received the reasonable remuneration in respect of the employment, work or activities.

- (2) If:
 - (a) the bankrupt enters or entered during a contribution assessment period into any transaction that might reasonably be expected to produce or to have produced income; and
 - (b) the bankrupt does not derive or did not derive any income from the transaction or derives or derived income that is less than the income (in this subsection called the reasonable income) that might reasonably be expected to be or to have been derived if the transaction were or had been entered into at arm's length;

then, for the purpose of making an assessment, the trustee may determine that the bankrupt derives or derived the reasonable income from the transaction.

139Z If bankrupt claims not to be in receipt of income

- (1) If a bankrupt:
 - (a) does not provide information about whether he or she is likely to derive, or derived, income or a particular class of income during a contribution assessment period; or
 - (b) claims not to be likely to derive, or not to have derived, any income or a particular class of income during a contribution assessment period;

but the trustee has reasonable grounds for believing that the bankrupt is likely to derive, or derived, income, or income of that class, during that period, then, for the purpose of making an assessment, the trustee may determine that the bankrupt is likely to derive, or derived, income, or income of that class, during that period and may also determine the amount of that income.

Division 4—Provisions applicable to all discharges

152 Discharged bankrupt to give assistance

A discharged bankrupt must, even though discharged, give such assistance as the trustee reasonably requires in the realization and distribution of such of his or her property as is vested in the trustee.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

153 Effect of discharge

- (1) Subject to this section, where a bankrupt is discharged from a bankruptcy, the discharge operates to release him or her from all debts (including secured debts) provable in the bankruptcy, whether or not, in the case of a secured debt, the secured creditor has surrendered his or her security for the benefit of creditors generally.

Note: The operation of this section in relation to accumulated HEC debts and semester debts under the Higher Education Funding Act 1988 is affected by section 106YA of that Act.

- (2) The discharge of a bankrupt from a bankruptcy does not:
- (a) release the bankrupt from:
 - (i) a debt on a recognizance; or
 - (ii) a debt with which the bankrupt is chargeable at the suit of the sheriff or other public officer on a bail bond entered into for the appearance of a person prosecuted for an offence against a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth; or
 - (aa) release the bankrupt from liability to pay an amount to the trustee under subsection 139ZG(1); or
 - (b) release the bankrupt from a debt incurred by means of fraud or a fraudulent breach of trust to which he or she was a party or a debt of which he or she has obtained forbearance by fraud; or
 - (c) subject to any order of the Court made under subsection (2A), release the bankrupt from any liability under a maintenance agreement or maintenance order;

Note: A discharged bankrupt remains liable under any pecuniary penalty order because such liabilities are not provable in bankruptcy, see subsection 82(3A).

- (2A) The Court may order that the discharge of a bankrupt from bankruptcy shall operate to release the bankrupt, to such extent and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit, from liability to pay arrears due under a maintenance agreement or maintenance order.
- (3) The discharge of a bankrupt from a bankruptcy does not affect the right of a secured creditor, or any person claiming through or under him or her, to realize or otherwise deal with his or her security:
- (a) if the secured creditor has not proved in the bankruptcy for any part of the secured debt—for the purpose of obtaining payment of the secured debt; or
 - (b) if the secured creditor has proved in the bankruptcy for part of the secured debt—for the purpose of obtaining payment of the part of the secured debt for which he or she has not proved in the bankruptcy; and, for the purposes of enabling the secured creditor or a person claiming through or under him or her so to realize or deal with his or her security, but not otherwise, the secured debt, or the part of the secured debt, as the case may be, shall be deemed not to have been released by the discharge of the bankrupt.

- (4) The discharge of a bankrupt from a bankruptcy does not release from any liability a person who, at the date on which the bankrupt became a bankrupt:
 - (a) was a partner or a co-trustee with the bankrupt or was jointly bound or had made a joint contract with the bankrupt; or
 - (b) was surety or in the nature of a surety for the bankrupt.
- (5) Where a bankrupt has been discharged from a bankruptcy, all proceedings taken in or in respect of the bankruptcy shall be deemed to have been validly taken.

Division 5—Annulment of bankruptcy

153A Annulment on payment of debts

- (1) If the trustee is satisfied that all the bankrupt's debts have been paid in full, the bankruptcy is annulled, by force of this subsection, on the date on which the last such payment was made.
- (1A) In determining whether there has been full payment of a debt that bears interest, the interest must be reckoned up to and including the date on which the debt (including interest) is paid.
- (2) The trustee must, as soon as practicable after that date, give to the Official Receiver a written certificate setting out the former bankrupt's name and bankruptcy number and the date of the annulment.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, if a debt has been proved by a creditor but the creditor cannot be found or cannot be identified, the debt may be paid to the Official Receiver and, if so paid, is taken for the purposes of this section to have been paid in full to the creditor.
- (4A) Money received by the Official Receiver under subsection (4) is received on behalf of the Commonwealth.
- (5) If money is paid to the Official Receiver under subsection (4), the provisions of subsections 254(3) and (4) apply in relation to that money as if it had been paid to the Commonwealth by a trustee under subsection 254(2).
- (6) In this section:

bankrupt's debts means all debts that have been proved in the bankruptcy and includes interest payable on such of those debts as bear interest, and the costs, charges and expenses of the administration of the bankruptcy, including the remuneration and expenses of the trustee.

153B Annulment by Court

- (1) If the Court is satisfied that a sequestration order ought not to have been made or, in the case of a debtor's petition, that the petition ought not to have been presented or ought not to have been accepted by the Official Receiver, the Court may make an order annulling the bankruptcy.
- (2) In the case of a debtor's petition, the order may be made whether or not the bankrupt was insolvent when the petition was presented.

154 Effect of annulment

- (1) If the bankruptcy of a person (in this section called the former bankrupt) is annulled under this Division:
 - (a) all sales and dispositions of property and payments duly made, and all acts done, by the trustee or any person acting under the authority of the trustee or the Court before the annulment are taken to have been validly made or done; and
 - (b) the trustee may apply the property of the former bankrupt still vested in the trustee in payment of the costs, charges and expenses of the administration of the bankruptcy, including the remuneration and expenses of the trustee; and
 - (c) subject to subsections (3), (6) and (7), the remainder (if any) of the property of the former bankrupt still vested in the trustee reverts to the bankrupt.

- (2) If the property of the former bankrupt referred to in paragraph (1)(b) is insufficient to meet the costs, charges and expenses referred to in that paragraph, the amount of the deficiency is a debt due by the former bankrupt to the trustee and is recoverable by the trustee by action against the former bankrupt in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (3) If an application is made to the Court by a person claiming an interest in property referred to in paragraph (1)(c), the Court, after hearing such persons as it thinks fit, may make an order, either unconditionally or on such conditions as the Court considers just and equitable, for the vesting of the property in, or delivery of the property to, a person in whom, or to whom, it seems to the Court to be just and equitable that it should be vested or delivered, or to a trustee for that person.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), if an order vesting property in a person is made under subsection (3), the property vests immediately in the person without any conveyance, transfer or assignment.
- (5) If:
 - (a) the property to which such an order relates is property the transfer of which is required by a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory to be registered; and
 - (b) that law enables the registration of such an order;the property, even though it vests in equity in the person named in the order, does not vest in that person at law until the requirements of that law have been complied with.
- (6) The Court may make an order directing the trustee not to pay or transfer the property, or a specified part of the property, referred to in paragraph (1)(c) to the former bankrupt if:
 - (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions, or a person who is entitled to apply for an interstate confiscation order under a corresponding law, applies to the Court for an order under this subsection; and
 - (b) the Court is satisfied that:
 - (i) proceedings are pending under a proceeds of crime law; and
 - (ii) property of the former bankrupt may:
 - (A) become subject to a forfeiture order or interstate forfeiture order made in the proceedings; or
 - (B) be required to satisfy a pecuniary penalty order or interstate pecuniary penalty order made in the proceedings.
- (7) The Court, on application made to it, may vary or revoke an order made under subsection (6).

Part XV—Provisions relating to the Bankruptcy (Estate Charges) Act 1997

278 Interpretation

In this Part:

Estate Charges Act means the Bankruptcy (Estate Charges) Act 1997.

interest charge means charge imposed by Part 2 of the Estate Charges Act.

late payment penalty means penalty payable under subsection 281(1).

realisations charge means charge imposed by Part 3 of the Estate Charges Act.

279 Administration of, and powers and functions in relation to, the Charges Acts

- (1) The Inspector-General has the general administration of the Estate Charges Act.
- (2) A reference to “this Act” in section 12 or 77AA of this Act is taken to include a reference to the Estate Charges Act.

280 Deferred payment of interest charge or realisations charge

- (1) A person may defer the payment of an amount of interest charge relating to a particular trustee account if:
 - (a) the total amount of interest charge that the person is liable to pay in respect of the account is less than $50; and
 - (b) the account has not been closed; and
 - (c) the person has notified the Inspector-General as provided for in subsection (3).
- (2) A person may defer the payment of an amount of realisations charge relating to a particular bankrupt’s estate, deceased person’s estate or debtor’s property, as the case may be, if:

 - (b) the trustee account in relation to the estate or property has not been closed; and
 - (c) the person has notified the Inspector-General as provided for in subsection (3).

- (4) If a person defers payment of an amount of interest charge or realisations charge in accordance with this section, the amount is still payable to the Commonwealth, but the person does not have to pay it until 21 days after whichever of the following happens first:
 - (a) at the end of a charge period:
 - (i) if the deferral is of interest charge—the total amount of interest charge that the person is liable to pay in respect of the relevant trustee account is $50 or more; or

- (ii) if the deferral is of realisations charge—the total amount of realisations charge that the person is liable to pay in respect of the relevant estate or property is $50 or more;
- (b) the relevant trustee account is closed.

Note: As a deferred amount is still payable to the Commonwealth, it must be taken into account in working out the total amounts referred to in paragraphs (1)(a), (2)(a) and (4)(a).

(5) In this section:

trustee account means an account under section 169, or under that section as applied by any of the following provisions:

281 Late payment penalty—interest charge and realisations charge

- (1) If any interest charge or realisations charge remains unpaid after the time for payment of the charge, the person liable to pay the charge is liable to pay to the Commonwealth a late payment penalty calculated from that time at the rate of 20% per year on the amount unpaid.
- (2) The person liable to pay late payment penalty is personally liable to pay the penalty and is not entitled to be reimbursed in respect of the penalty out of the bankrupt's estate, the deceased person's estate or the debtor's property, as the case may be.

282 Extension of time for payment—interest charge and realisations charge

- (1) The Inspector-General may, in a particular case, extend the time for payment of interest charge or realisations charge.

 - (b) an application is to be in writing, setting out the reasons for the application, and is to be made to the Inspector-General before the original time for payment;
 - (c) the Inspector-General's decision on an application is to be in writing;
 - (d) application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision to refuse an application, or to grant a lesser extension than was applied for.

Note: Section 27A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 requires notification of a decision that is reviewable.

283 Remission of interest charge, realisations charge and late payment penalty

- (1) The Inspector-General may remit an amount of interest charge, realisations charge or late payment penalty that is payable but has not been paid if the Inspector-General thinks that:
 - (a) failure to remit the amount would cause a person undue hardship; and
 - (b) it is appropriate to remit the amount.
- (2) The following provisions apply in relation to remissions under subsection (1):
 - (a) the person liable to pay the charge or penalty may apply for a remission;
 - (b) an application is to be in writing, setting out the reasons for the application, and is to be made to the Inspector-General;
 - (c) the Inspector-General's decision on an application is to be in writing;

- (d) application may be made to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of a decision to refuse an application, or to remit a lesser amount than was applied for.

Note: Section 27A of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 requires notification of a decision that is reviewable.

284 Recovery of interest charge, realisations charge and late payment penalty

Interest charge, realisations charge or late payment penalty that is due and payable may be recovered by the Commonwealth as a debt due to the Commonwealth.

285 Payments by cheque or payment order

- (1) If a person gives the Commonwealth a cheque or payment order in payment of an amount of interest charge, realisations charge or late payment penalty, the amount is taken not to be paid until the cheque or payment order is paid by the institution on which it is drawn.
- (2) If:
- (a) a person gives the Commonwealth a cheque or payment order in payment of an amount of interest charge or realisations charge; and
 - (b) the cheque or payment order is paid by the institution on which it is drawn;
- then, for the purposes of working out if there is a liability to late payment penalty, the amount of charge is taken to have been paid when the person gave the cheque to the Commonwealth.

286 Regulations may deal with other matters

- (1) The regulations may include other provisions dealing with the collection and recovery of interest charge, realisations charge or late payment penalty, including (but not limited to) provisions dealing with the following:

- (a) a requirement under that subsection involving a notice given before the repeal; or
- (b) an authorisation of an officer to exercise powers under paragraph 77C(1)(b) of that Act that was given before the repeal.

Tax Laws Amendment (Repeal of Inoperative Provisions) Act 2006
(No. 101, 2006)

Schedule 6

1 Application of Schedule 1 and 2 amendments

Except as mentioned in items 2 and 3, the repeals and amendments made by Schedules 1 and 2 apply:

- (a) so far as they affect assessments—to assessments for the 2006-07 income year and all later income years; and
- (b) otherwise—to acts done or omitted to be done, or states of affairs existing, after the commencement of the repeals and amendments.

6 Object

The object of this Part is to ensure that, despite the repeals and amendments made by this Act, the full legal and administrative consequences of:

- (a) any act done or omitted to be done; or
- (b) any state of affairs existing; or
- (c) any period ending;

before such a repeal or amendment applies, can continue to arise and be carried out, directly or indirectly through an indefinite number of steps, even if some or all of those steps are taken after the repeal or amendment applies.

7 Making and amending assessments, and doing other things, in relation to past matters

Even though an Act is repealed or amended by this Act, the repeal or amendment is disregarded for the purpose of doing any of the following under any Act or legislative instrument (within the meaning of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003):

- (a) making or amending an assessment (including under a provision that is itself repealed or amended);
- (b) exercising any right or power, performing any obligation or duty or doing any other thing (including under a provision that is itself repealed or amended); in relation to any act done or omitted to be done, any state of affairs existing, or any period ending, before the repeal or amendment applies.

Example 1: On 31 July 1999, Greg Ltd lodged its annual return under former section 160ARE of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936. The return stated that the company had a credit on its franking account and that no franking deficit tax was payable for the 1998-99 franking year. Under former section 160ARH of that Act, the Commissioner was taken to have made an assessment consistent with the return.

Following an audit undertaken after the repeal of Part IIIAA of that Act, the Commissioner concludes that Greg Ltd fraudulently overfranked dividends it paid during the 1998-99 franking year, and had a franking account deficit for that franking year. As a result, the Commissioner considers that franking deficit tax and a penalty by way of additional tax are payable.

The Commissioner can amend the assessment under former section 160ARN of that Act, because item 7 of this Schedule disregards the repeal of that section for the purposes of making an assessment in relation to the 1998-99 franking year. Item 7 will also disregard the repeal of Division 11 of former Part IIIAA to the extent necessary for the Commissioner to assess Greg Ltd's liability to a penalty by way of additional tax.

Despite the repeal of sections 160ARU and 160ARV, item 9 will ensure that the general interest charge will accrue on the unpaid franking deficit tax and penalty until they are paid.

Item 7 will also preserve Greg Ltd's right, under former section 160ART of that Act, to object against the Commissioner's amended assessment (including the penalty), since the objection is the exercise of a right in relation to a franking year that ended before the repeal of Part IIIAA.

Example 2: During the 1997-98 income year, Duffy Property Ltd withheld amounts from its employees' wages as required by former Divisions 1AAA and 2 of Part VI of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936. The company failed to notify the Commissioner of those amounts, and failed to remit them to the Commissioner.

Following an audit undertaken after the repeal of those Divisions, the Commissioner discovers that the withheld amounts have not been remitted. The company's records are incomplete and the Commissioner is unable to completely ascertain the extent of its liability for the withheld amounts. Under section 222AGA of that Act, the Commissioner makes an estimate of the liability.

Item 7 will disregard the repeal of section 220AAZA of that Act (which empowered the Commissioner to recover the amount of the estimate). Even though the estimate is made after the repeal, it relates to amounts withheld before the repeal.

8 Saving of provisions about effect of assessments

If a provision or part of a provision that is repealed or amended by this Act deals with the effect of an assessment, the repeal or amendment is disregarded in relation to assessments made, before or after the repeal or amendment applies, in relation to any act done or omitted to be done, any state of affairs existing, or any period ending, before the repeal or amendment applies.

9 Saving of provisions about general interest charge, failure to notify penalty or late reconciliation statement penalty

If:

- (a) a provision or part of a provision that is repealed or amended by this Act provides for the payment of:
 - (i) general interest charge, failure to notify penalty or late reconciliation statement penalty (all within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936); or
 - (ii) interest under the Taxation (Interest on Overpayments and Early Payments) Act 1983; and
- (b) in a particular case, the period in respect of which the charge, penalty or interest is payable (whether under the provision or under the Taxation Administration Act 1953) has not begun, or has begun but not ended, when the provision is repealed or amended;

then, despite the repeal or amendment, the provision or part continues to apply in the particular case until the end of the period.

10 Repeals disregarded for the purposes of dependent provisions

If the operation of a provision (the subject provision) of any Act or legislative instrument (within the meaning of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003) made under any Act depends to any extent on an Act, or a provision of an Act, that is repealed by this Act, the repeal is disregarded so far as it affects the operation of the subject provision.

11 Schedule does not limit operation of section 8 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901

Subsection 20B(7A) of the Bankruptcy Act 1966 applies to payments made before, at or after the commencement of this item.
